1. General

P.H. (Paul Henry) Brazier born in Evesham, Worcestershire (1954), married Hilary Whitworth in 1983. We were teachers for forty years in total (1960s-1990s). Hilary has severe epilepsy; for several years I have been officially her full-time carer, however, I have continued my creative work (writing and drawing, also design work for churches and charities) and have studied theology part-time at King's College London (1997-2005) while Hilary received care. We are Christian, Anglican, we have lived in an Edwardian terraced house in Wimbledon since 1985, and have attended a C of E church here since 1982.

Born in Evesham, Worcestershire into a market gardening family, Paul Brazier worked for the Forestry Commission on Bredon Hill and the North Cotswolds; after graduating from art college he went into teaching.

He holds degrees in Fine Art (B.A. 1977), Education (M.Phil. 1990), and Systematic Theology (M.A. 2001 and Ph.D. 2005, King's College London). His doctoral work focused on the influence of Dostoevsky on the young Karl Barth's doctrine of sin and atonement (Barth and Dostoevsky, Paternoster 2008). He has taught extensively at a variety of institutions from the late 1970s. Originally teaching in British Art Colleges over thirty years ago (Art History and Education. Heinemann 1985), he moved into inner-city urban priority area primary school teaching on South London estates following on from becoming a Christian in 1980. He is the editor of the late Colin E. Gunton's The Barth Lectures (Continuum, T&T Clark, 2007) and Revelation and Reason: Prolegomena to Systematic Theology (Continuum, T&T Clark, 2009); he has also published numerous articles and reviews in theological and philosophical journals.

Recently he undertook the graphic design work for the production of Perelandra the Opera in Oxford, and the web site for the The Evangelical Review, amongst other journals (including The Journal of Messianic Jewish Studies). Since 1999, Paul Brazier has been the full-time caregiver for his wife Hilary, who has epilepsy.

4. Creative Work

Ash Design

I have used 'Ash Design' as a name for nearly twenty years. I follow three simple rules: (a) the work explicitly or implicitly relates to and promotes the Gospel; (b) the work is done anonymously, as far as possible, therefore the only credit is the name/logo Ash Design; (c) the work is done for free, no charge for materials or labour; (d) the object/use of the work should not be primarily or solely for profit.

Examples–

1. Religious Life and Religious Communities : a large touring exhibition produced for the Communities Consultative Council of the Church of England. Design, construction and art direction was undertaken between Jan 1984 and Sept 1987; production work mainly in Oxford and Westminster, 1985-86.
2. 1981 on : numerous design projects have been undertaken for various churches/charity groups (graphic work, book/magazine design, and recently web design, for example: www.christchurch-westwimbledon.org).
3. 2008-12 : graphic design work for The Jigsaw Players – 20+ young chamber music players, who perform (in various combinations) as a quartet or quintet. They are all at the start of their careers and do Jigsaw work (sometimes free concerts) in addition to work as junior instrumentalists in large orchestras.
4. 2008 on : design work for the University of Oxford C.S. Lewis Society - design for the journal (The C.S. Lewis Chronicle), and for The Perelandra Project (an oratorio written by Donald Swann based on C.S. Lewis's Perelandra) – posters and other publicity material, concert programme, CD graphics and design. Also, 2010 on, design and construction of the first web site for The Journal of Inklings Studies, published by the society, also typesetting and design work for this new journal published from March 2011.
5. 2012 on, typesetting and design work for The Evangelical Review of Society and Politics, and The Evangelical Review of Theology and Politics.
